

HENRY PREVO OBITUARY
MARSHALL WEEKLY MESSENGER
27-JULY-1887

died at his home near this place on Sunday noon July 17, 1887, Mr. Henry Prevo in the seventy-fifth year of age. Mr. Prevo was one of the old pioneers of Clark County, having moved here from North Carolina, in 1817, when but four years old. In June 1843, he married Miss Amy Lindley, who died March 23, 1877. Mr. Prevo has always followed farming and was a man of whom every body spoke a good word. A kind and loving father and many a poor family remembers the help received from him when they met adversity. He was always generous to the needy. He long since joined the Masonic fraternity and continued to remain a member. A very large concourse of people attended the funeral on Monday. Rev. Tommy Bailiff preached the funeral discourse at the house. He was buried in the York Cemetery.
