

Josephine STUCK

Robinson (IL) Constitution, 17 December 1908

Josephine Stuck was born in Clark County, Ill, Oct 19, 1844, died at her home near Oblong, Ill., Nov. 18, 1908, aged 64 years, 29 days. She was married to Charles Bailiff August 22, 1877. To this union were born two children, Laurence and Charley. She professed in Christ and united with the Cumberland Presbyterian church early in life and lived a Christian life, dying in the full triumph of a living faith in Christ. A few days before her death she told her friends she was just waiting for the Master to call her home; to the husband, we would find consolation in the same Christ she did; to the children, pillow your heads upon the bosom of Him who is able to still the grief-lashed soul and look beyond this and parting to the time of that reunion above. She is gone from us for a while but her memory shall ever be cherished. The funeral was preached by Rev. Wm. Chamness at the Bailiff church after which the body was placed in the Bailiff cemetery to await the resurrection morn.
