Columbus A. Bailiff Enlisted 6 Nov. 1862, Deserted 15 Dec. 1863 at Post Oak, Georgia. Captured by Union troops in DeKalb Co., Tenn., took the oath of allegiance 24 Dec. 1863, released "on taking oath and going north of the Ohio river."

James Monroe Bailiff, Pvt. Co. A, enlisted 25 Feb. 1863. Deserted from Tunnel Hill 15 Dec. 1863. Took oath 22 Dec. 1863 and sent north.

Jessie Vandergriff Bailiff Fuson, b. 1909 28 May 1990

Jessie's husband was Paul Bailiff, son of Ison and Nettie Davis Bailiff. She has heard Paul tell of hearing his grandfather [James Monroe Bailiff [1845-1927]] speak of a fight that his father [Thomas Bailiff 1808-c.1852] had. Paul's grandfather [James Monroe] was a small boy at the time, and they had moved to a new place. His father [Thomas] was splitting wood when up rode a man who considered himself the bully of the community. He announced that he had come to whip Bailiff, who was evidently a large, strong man. Bailiff removed his coat, and they fought. In the course of the fight Bailiff chewed off the man's ear and spit it out on the dog-house roof. But the man gouged Bailiff's eye until the blood ran, and after it was over, Bailiff discovered his sight was gone. He said he would have killed the man if he had known that. [Did Thomas Bailiff die as a result of this fight? He died about 1852, when his son James Monroe was about six or seven, just old enough to remember such an event well.]

Dear Tommy Webb,

I'm am very excited to know that there is a Historian in Chatham county. The Chamber of Commerce referred me to you for reputable information. You must know a lot of history! Have you written any of it down. I'd love to hear about it.

I have spent several years trying to tract my ancestors. I have enough information to write a book and that is why I am writing to you. I would love to hear some of the older stories and see some pictures. I read a publication for Dekalb county recently but it centered more on the Civil War activities not on its citizens. It appears that our relatives were friends and neighbors as the Webb names appears on many documents. I was hoping you might have some information on the BAILIFF line. I am sending the list of all the deeds, wills, and marriage information that I have researched at our library here in Salt Lake City. I am also sending a copy of the family group sheets that I have worked out. Maybe you can fill in some blanks for me. I am a descendent of Thomas who, I believe, is the son of Rebeccah of Orange county, NC and brother to Abner. She has five children. I have no information on the last three children.

1. Thomas (b. 1769) who marries Elizabeth Baker in 1790, and maybe a Mary White, but I can't prove that. He marries Mary Burke eventually.
2. Abner (b. 1770) who marries Martha Cloud but I don't know when. Her father is Daniel Cloud. He moves to Chatham also.
3. William (b.?) but I think he changes the spelling of his name to BAILEY.
4. John (b. ?) who marries Tillitha CATE in 1803.
5. Nancy (b.?) who marries Thomas CATE in 1803.

Thomas has a son whose name is also Thomas who has a son James Monroe, who has a son William Monroe, who has a son William Foster, who is my grandfather. I believe you may have known Foster Bailiff. I am desperately looking for information on both of the older Thomas's. If you have the time and inclination, I would be pleased to pay you for your time. returned to her

I am enclosing a check for $10.00 for copying expenses. If the cost get above $10.00, let me know and I will reimburse you. I will also reimburse you for postage.

All and any information that you find on the Bailiff line (regardless of date) will be much appreciated. I have found a branch of Bailiff's in Watagua, NC., close to Banner Elk but have not been able to bridge them into my line. This Bailiff is also named Thomas but his birthdate is off a couple of years. And unless, he traveled a lot, he would have two families. In any case, I will send you a copy of the family work sheet for the Thomas in Banner Elk for your information also. It appears that my Thomas's son (Thomas II) lived in North Carolina, then Alabama, and then Tennessee where my father, grandfather and greatgrandfather and great-great grandfather were born.

I am excited about your availability and hope you are willing to help. I look forward to hearing from you soon. Thank you so very much!

Sincerely,

Linda Bailiff Bradshaw

Dear Tommy,

Greetings, My name is Linda Bailiff and I am researching the Bailiff family roots. Joy Fuson gave me your address and said you are the historian in the area. This is my decent. Linda 1951 Cleve Ohio

James Howard 1929 Delta Ohio

Wm Foster 1900 Liberty Tenn.

Wm Monroe 1868 - 1928 Smithville Tenn.

James Monroe 1845 - 1927 Smithville Tenn

Thomas II 1808 - 1852 Smithville Tenn

Thomas I - 1769 - 1854 Smithville Tenn.

When Thomas II died his wife remarried James Jones. Most people know him as [illegible] father. However, there is a secret to the death of Thomas. There are people in Possum Hollow who know very little about James Monroe but either don't know or are not saying that they know of Thomas. I'm hoping you can give me a lead. Maybe you know of someone. Talfee Moore is my last and greatest source. Perhaps a decendant of James Jones. His children were William 1847, Lucian 1850 Rufus 1852. all of DeKalb

In the 1860 Tax List one of Thomas children inherited 126 acres in District #1 In 1865 20 acres were sold. ~~In 1860 1870 all the land kept the hands of the Bailey~~ In 1875 Nancy, Tom wife deeded 100 acres to her first born son Columbus. This land adjoined John Chapman, Gary Rowland, and Robson.

I will appreciate any help you can give me. Thank You Sincerely

Dear Tom

Happy Thanksgiving! Thank You for returning my letter so soon. I'm not surprized that you have a Bailiff relative. I bet if you asked around, you'd find more. I'd like your brothers address, please. Maybe his wife would be interested in the Bailiff family reunion. It is going to be in Banner Elk, N.C. this 4th of July weekend. I've been in contact with Bailiff's everywhere. We even have Bailiff's in England coming over just for the reunion. Looks like we'll have a good show. Maybe you'd be interested?

Yes, Yes, Yes, I would like a copy of all the material you have on Fosters. It appears they were influencial people. Eliza Jane's parents were John Foster and Martha Hale. In found them in the 1850 Dekalb census: John 28 yrs. born 1822

Martha 27 1823
James N 9 1841
Joel L 6 1844
Eliza J. 3 1847
Elizabeth 2 mo. 1850

I have Eliza Jane's death certificate that states her parents name. So, it fives.

While I was in Dekalb county this past summer I found some information in Mt Holly cemetery. It seems alot of graves had to be moved. To make way for a reservoir. Alot of Foster graves were moved and some Hales. It seems there is only one master to these gravesites and it is in your courthouses water district.

I have a relative in Smithville. Her name is Lillie Taylor. She is daughter of Tom Bailiff. Could Faye be her daughter?

I guess Tom was confused about his grandfather. Thomas II had these children: Columbus 1833-1907
Josab 1836
Mary 1838
Isaac 1839
William R 1841
* Monroe 1845-1927

Nancy Bates Bailiff did remarry after Tom died. She married James K. Jones May 1, 1855. By the way, Eliza Jane's parent remarried too. John C. married Maggie, M.M. Dec 2, 1864 and Martha married Terrell, Alex E ~~Moss~~ April 5, 1862. It is interesting to note that William K married Eliza J. Jones in 1862 after living as stepbrother &

File 00014 Pg 16

he - for a number of years. I can't find where William K. moved his family. I'm guessing, to Alabama. In fact, I wonder where all the brothers are. Columbus own property in DeKalb county for twenty years. About 120 acres called the "Baily old place" adjoining John Chapman, Gary Rowland + Robson in 1875 in District #1. William K sells his land to Columbus in 1865 = one hundred + twenty acres. Bounded to the east by John Simpson in the south; Vanover east in the west; Widow Palmer + J.J. Ford in the North Joseph Haley. Can you locate this land? I didn't know who to ask when I was there. I can find none of Columbus's descendant's today.

About Temperance Hall, where is it? What is it? Maybe a home is still there.

Yes, both Toms were of Smith County. Tom II died in DeKalb county according to his will. 1858 Tom I died in Smith county, he was a blacksmith. Tom II will his land to wife nancy who will the land to Columbus (already described) It crazy that no one remembers Tom.

I was hoping to come up with a descendent of James K Jones that might know something. His sons were William, Lucian + Rufus. Do you know of any?

Somewhere I've picked up the names Fannie Francis Web + Jody Web. Are these your relatives?

I believe the Bailey that owns the store on Old Hwy 70 in Liberty, is a decendent of Joab. [redacted]

I don't have the last page of Tom II will. Maybe you could find it for me.

I was wondering if we might take out an ad in your local DeKalb newspaper, asking for the decendant of William Green + Rufus Jones? What do you think. Let me know.

Well, I will close for now. Write back soon.

Sincerely
Linda Bailiff Stevenson

Dear Thomas,

Season Greetings. How exciting! You live on a farm? I wish that I lived close enough to come see. I know that sound nieve. But, you see, I was born and raised in Clive, Ohio. The inner most city. The only chicken I had ever seen was packaged and frozen? Ha! Ha! That is why my husband and I moved west. We didn't want to raise children in that same environment.

Thank you for bringing the Irish debts to my attention. I received the old document and could decifer 'just' debts.

Thomas I-II were born in Orange Co. N.C. Originally, Chatham Co. Tom I wife was Mary known as "Polly" For the past 7 yrs I believed her last name was White

Born in N.C., probably Orange Co. That is another avenue that I have not researched. There is only myself doing this research. It goes slow sometimes. Tom H was Nancy Bates.

I will include a packet of information I've found. Review it please and jot down notes if any of it connects to you. Being a historian, you have more insite than me. I am an amateur. But I love it.

I wrote a letter to Michael Antoniak. In his article he mentioned a 'BAILIFF' house. My records show an Elizabeth Bailiff and grand daughter Lizzie running a boarding house. Would love to know what Bailiff she married? Or how that house was formed. Maybe the boarding house was the one founded by the Masonic Lodge? Speaking of Masonic Lodge, what was that all about? Are there any records? Thomas I was a member.

I recently called Talfie Bailiff Moore, sister of Lillie Taylor. She said Lillie was in the hospital with a broken hip. I hope she is well. We can't let these old people go without hearing their stories. Your right about them not writing. It grieves me to think I can't travel at will. I wish I'd been born wealthy just to complete my genealogy.

I checked the 1870-1880 census on the Foster and Dibrell and didn't find them but that doesn't say that they weren't there. I will get the wills on the Leagues and send you a copy.

Could you send me a copy of the DeKalb phone directory. I will try to contact some Jones'. Also, would you send me some addresses of the cemetarys near Temperance Hall. I have to find those Thomas's.

Thomas are you sure of the spelling on Martha + Linton Hailes. I thought it was HALE.

If I don't hear from Michael Antoniak soon. Maybe you could ~~send~~ give him a ring on the telephone for me.

I will close for now. Merry Christmas.

12.30.80

Hello Again,

I don't know where the time went. I got to wondering about a reply from you, then realized that I never mailed the letter.

I have found a descendent of Columbus A. He moved to Florida, can you believe? His families are now in Dallas Texas. They were so surprized to hear from me. They say they will attend the reunion.

Well, I'll get this out today and send the rest when I get to the post office. Write soon.

Linda Bailey Stinson

P.S. I would appreciate a map of DeKalb county showing its water if ya have one.

Heredity

Someone labored years ago, Whose name
I do not know. Ploughed ground or sailed the open sea. And loved a maiden that she might be. Two centuries ago or more. A women at an English door.
Looked fondly at a lilac tree and passed that bit of pride to me. Overload enraptured when she heard. The music of a singing bird. And now, with each returning Spring. I find I do the self same thing. Could we untangle all our lives. And learn how much of us survives, We might discover just how far. Goes back what makes us what we are.

File 00014 Pg 187

I C.A. Bailiff of the county of Dekalb and state of Tennessee being of sound mind and memory do make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament. To wit:

First - All my just debts and funeral expenses shall be first fully paid.

Second - I want my executor to put a monument to my grave. A monument would cost about one hundred and fifty dollars.

Third - I give devise and bequeath all the rest residue and remainder of my estate both real and personal to my beloved wife, Mary F. Bailiff to have and to hold to her my said wife during her life.

Fourth - After the death of my said wife I want all my property both real and personal sold by my executor by advertising and sold at public auction. The real estate sold on one and two year time except twenty percent cash with approved security with a lein on land for purchased money and equally divided between my three children; C.E. Bailiff. (Charles E.) and C.B. Bailiff (Columbus Berry) and Mrs. Josie Bailiff Vantrease except twenty five dollars to my daughter Mrs Marthy Bailiff Fisher the said twenty five dollars to be paid to her before the probate between my other three children named wherein.

Fifth - My reason for not making my daughter Mrs. Marthy Bailiff Fisher to share equally with my other three children is because she lived with her grandfather Jonathan Dedman until her marriage and he gave to her the share of her mothers in his extate amounting to over one hundred dollars and she was never of any assistance to me in any way, is my reason for not making her equal with my others named above.

Sixth - The real estate bequeathed in this document shall not be transfered nor sold by any of the heirs except to each other until this my last will shall have been fully executed as here in set forth.

This photograph was taken about 1892. None of the children had married. They are as follows:

Starting from the left is Alonzo Farmer Bailiff. Then, Leslie Dee Bailiff. Sitting is James Monroe Bailiff holding youngest child, Sellar Edgar Bailiff. Standing directly behind James Monroe is daughter, Fannie Bailiff. Next to Aunt Fannie is Nancy Bailiff. Sitting is Eliza Foster Bailiff. Young boy standing to the right is Thomas Theopolis Bailiff. Everyone called him "Thee". Sitting to far right is the oldest child, William (Bill) Monroe Bailiff.

The photo to the right is a tin-type. Grandpa and Grandma Bailiff had married. I estimate the photo to be about 1866. They were married in October of 1865. James Monroe & Eliza Foster Bailiff.

The photo to the left is a picture of James Monroe before he married. Probably taken about 1865. I am unsure if it is a tin-type. I would assume that for the age it would be a tin-type.

The photo to the right is of Monroe & Eliza Foster Bailiff about 1925 at their home is Possum Hollow. Monroe was 80 years old. He died from cancer of the face in 1927. She died the following winter.
